Summary
Spanish patients in general feel worse off than their counterparts in other countries but have greater access to integrated care centres or patient-centred care or multidisciplinary care. When compared to other countries in the survey, asthma patients feel that disease is not getting enough attention compared to other chronic diseases. COPD patients feel that their life quality is significantly impacted by the disease.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>asthma</th>
<th>COPD</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>27% initially received a wrong diagnosis</td>
<td>29% initially received wrong diagnosis</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>24% of asthma patients visit the HCPs 12 times a year or more</td>
<td>25% of COPD patients visit HCPs 12 times a year or more</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>34% of patients are dissatisfied with the public authorities</td>
<td>49% don’t have a written management plan or ever heard of one</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Treatments currently used by patients for their asthma
- LABA & Corticosteroid combined: 37%
- Oral corticosteroids/Corticone pills as 3rd most used (40% vs. 21% overall and the 6th most used overall)
- Antihistamines/antiallergic: 40%
- Oral antiebacterials/antibiotics: 42%
- SABA/emergency relief: 75%
- LABA reliever: 71%
- Inhaled steroids/Corticone: 35%
- Antihistamines: 35%
- Antitussive: 35%

Treatments currently used by patients for their COPD
- Smoking cessation: 25%
- SABA/emergency relief: 35%
- LABA reliever: 71%
- Inhaled steroids/Corticone: 35%
- Antihistamines: 35%
- Antitussive: 32%

Active Patient ACCESS Report
country fact sheet: Spain

#ShowLeadership
read full report: https://efanet.online/ACCESS